To be rid of the bite,
There's the hair of the dog,
As easy as falling
From off of a log;
But to do it when better
And 'o it up quick,
Just fill yourself up With Fleming's Blue Lick.

"The poor you have will you always,"
The street cars are running as usual in spite of the snow.

The sleighs were out in force yesterday and this morning.

MANY Maysville brunettes have converted themselves into blondines.

Twenty highway couples were married at Aberdeen last week by Equine Beasley.

Do not fail to stop and see the fine display of vase lamps in McCarthy's show window, on Sutton street.

Not counting a few cots the health of the people in Maysville is unusually good for this season of the year.

The wheat is reported to be looking well in Fleming county. It has not been injured by the recent light frozes.

When the illuminated dial of the Maysville town clock sheds its glare on a $25,000 opera house, everything will be very lovely here.

Make yourself a good and seasonable holiday present by purchasing one of Hechinger Bros. & Co.'s elegant winter suits—none better in the wide, wide world.

The detectives at Cincinnati are said to be working on the theory that Allie Hubbard was murdered, and claim to be in possession of a clue that may lead to the arrest of the alleged murderer.

The first number of the Daily Sentinel-Democrat, published at Mt. Sterling, has been received. It is a credit to the enterprising publishers.

The Handy No. 2 did not leave Cincinnati yesterday as expected, on account of the bad weather and some pipe fitting it was found necessary to do. A despatch received by the BULLETIN this morning states that she will leave to-day.

The business of Maysville was never conducted on a better basis than now.
There is not in the city, that we know of, a single business man who is not in a sound financial condition. This is a record that very few towns in the country can show.

The Postmaster General has issued a circular to postmasters, in which he says;
"In consequence of the recent reduction in the letter rate of postage, postmasters are directed to exchange for the public, as application can be made, the three and six-cent denominations of postage stamps and stamped envelopes for others of different denominations."

The Kentucky Central with its usual spirit of liberality, is offering cheap rates during the holidays. From December 22 to January 1 inclusive, excusion tickets will be sold to Covington from all points on the Maysville Division at $3 for the round trip, and between all other stations at extremely low rates.
These tickets will be good to return until January 2, including that day.

Mr. JOHN BLANCHARD does not want to be a councilman, and gives some very pointed reasons for declining the honors his friends wish to confer upon him. The following is his card:

To the voters of the Fifth Ward of the city of Maysville who have kindly solicited me to become a candidate for a councilman, I return my sincere thanks, and must admit, I return them positively, that I cannot afford to make the race. There are many reasons why I cannot make this attempt. It is now quiet and peaceful in the ward—contentment hangs upon every brow—whereas, if I were a candidate the floodgates would be turned loose to secure my defeat, and the money bags and flesh-pots of Egypt would be brought into requisition, which is the very thing I cannot do. The Government would be raised up. All this would be done, as it has been done, and even more, to keep me out of a position to do good. Furthermore, I do not want to assume the responsibility of membership in a board that is constantly doing the city more harm than it is good; subsidizing vice, closing public streets and alleys for private purposes, and increasing the city taxes to build mud banks and private roadways, and including in other crookedness that I could not straighten up in a natural lifetime, and I am of the opinion that the ward would be far better off if we had no Councilmen at all.
Respectfully yours,
JOHN BLANCHARD.

PERSONALS.
Mrs. Nancy Moore and son, of Dover, are the guests of the family of Mr. W.
H. Ambrose, of Chester.
Mr. Charles F. Petry expects to spend part of the winter in Florida. He will go there in a few weeks.
Judge T. M. Dora, of Germantown, one of the BULLETIN's earliest subscribers, favored us with a call on Monday.
Rev. W. W. Spates, of Sardis, left today on a visit to his friends near Kansas City. He will be absent about a month.
Sheriff J. P. Hebling, of Georgetown, Ohio, will be urged by his friends as a candidate for Warden of the State penitentiary.

ABERDEEN ITEMS.

The Stanley Dramatic Troupe arrived Sunday.
Those it. tinsaps at the new tin shop are impressive.

Don't forget the Opheus Thursday, the 20th of December.

Patrolize home talent. Be sure and take in the Choral to-night.

We will retract for Edward. He says he don't drink coffee. Guess he must slip nectar then.

The young son of Mr. Chas. Rains was accidentally burned on Saturday last, but only slightly.

The musical notes of the sleigh bells were echoing on our streets for the first time this season on Sunday.

Saturday night is the most demonstrative we have in this town, interlarded with a great deal of whisky.

From reports we are under the impression the daily BULLETIN is on the boom in this city, and long may she boom if we can help it.

We bestow merit where merit is due, and must say that Alex. D. Hill is one of the most courteous and accommodating young men of our city.

There are a few young men who are working considerable over our items. Now bear this in mind, your that will come before long, young men. We will make you up a Christmas present.

H. F. True & Son will soon be done prizing for this season. This firm is composed of the most clever and courteous gentlemen we have ever met in this city, and just in all their dealings, and liked by all.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." You should pay a visit to the dry goods emporium of A. S. Boswell & Co. to be convinced of this fact. Their display embraces all of the novelties of the season, and they will be glad to show you through their mammoth stock.

Next Thursday night there will be one of the most notable events that ever transpired in this city, namely, the concert given by the Orpheus club. It is composed entirely of some talent and of the very best and should be appreciated. It has required labor and expense to bring it to its present standard, and they should be greeted with a crowded house.

We made an inspection of Mr. Chas. Reins' unexcelled cooking apparatus "The Ladies' Friend," which it is in every respect. It is used for cooking vegetables and meats of all kinds, in fact everything pertaining to the cooking line. It is handy, ingenious, and does the work Mr. Reins expects to get his patent papers shortly, when they will be for sale.

We have been trying to find out what was the matter with one of our prominent young men, who is in the office in love of being ill. He has that far away look as if he was trying to pry into the hidden mysteries of the future and therein read his fate. A fact is, no doubt, but we hope not. The might be a stroke of a chance for him, yet who knows.

No other medicine has won for itself

A Quick Recovery.

It gives us pleasure to state that the merchant who was reported to be at the point of death from an attack of pneumonia, has entirely recovered by the use of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs.
Naturally he feels grateful for the benefits derived from using this remedy for the lungs and throat; and in giving publicity to this statement we are actuated by the motives of public beneficence, trusting that others may be benefited in a similar manner.
